LARGE PART OF POOL CROP SOLD

President Jim Stone Says Price
"Very Satisfactory" But Withholds Details Now

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 6.—A large portion of the approximately 200,000,000 pounds of burley tobacco controlled by the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association has been sold "at very satisfactory prices," and prospects are bright for the early sale of the remainder, James C. Stone, president and general manager, announced Saturday.

Mr. Stone declined to state how much has been sold or at what prices, saying that he was "not able to make an intelligent report" at that time on the quantity, prices, or the buyers.

The leaf this far sold has been to several buyers, Mr. Stone said, and much of it was in winter order. "We are very optimistic over prospects for the sale of the entire crop soon, with most of it in winter order," Mr. Stone said. Winter order is tobacco in loose leaf form. Sale in winter order means that the drying process is in the hands of the buyer.

Liggett & Myers A Buyer

Twenty million pounds of the pooled tobacco has been sold for an average of well between 20 and 30 cents a pound to the Liggett and Myers company, according to well founded reports Saturday.

Ralph M. Barker, director of warehouses for the co-operative association, said Saturday that the Liggett and Myers company was one of the purchasers, but declined to state the amount bought or the figure paid.

James Pryor, local manager for Liggett and Myers, declined to make a statement with reference to the report, which came originally from one of the officials of the pool.

Approximately one million pounds of pooled leaf already has been reduced by the plants into contract to the association, according to a report of Dr. S. H. Halley, in charge of this department. The leaf is stored in hogsheds in Lexington warehouses under control of the association.

Resume Deliveries Monday

Greatly heartened and encouraged by the advances made to the growers throughout the burley district by the association, members of that organization will resume Monday the delivery of their crops to the receiving plants. No estimate was obtained as to the amount of tobacco delivered since the warehouses opened last Monday, nor was it possible to learn what amount of money had been advanced to the growers.

"That's what this association was organized for," Mr. Stone said, "to sell tobacco, and we're selling it, and are going to sell still more of it. The prices we received for what we have sold have been entirely satisfactory to the officials of the association and feel quite sure, will be satisfactory to the growers who are members of the association."

"One of the most remarkable features connected with the opening of our floors to receive the association tobacco has been the fact that in almost every instance the amount paid on members has been higher than the entire crop last year, and that in many instances the advance paid to our members for a half crop pledged to the association has been as much or nearly as much as the other half, not pledged, sold for on the independent loose leaf floors."

"The members of the association are sitting steady in the boat and they are happy and contented with the present situation and without fear as to the future. I agree with Ralph Barker in his statement that the growers will never go back to the old system of marketing."

Landlords Must Control Crops

"There seems to be some misunderstanding as to the meaning of the statement made recently that landlords would be presumed to control the crops grown on their land in 1922 and thereafter," said Chief of the Field Service Division Joseph Passmore Saturday, when asked in regard to just what effect the application of that clause of the marketing contract would have on control of tobacco grown for the next five years on the lands of members of

SIGNING OF TREATIES ENDS CONFERENCE

Washington, Feb. 6.—The history-making conference on limitation of armament and Far Eastern questions ended today with the signing of treaties and a farewell address by President Harding, with its work characterized by Harding as the first deliberate and effective expression of the great powers in the consciousness of peace, and of war's utter futility. The great conference went into the niche of history to await judgments and developments of the future.

In the great assembly hall, the delegates of nine nations meanwhile marched in turn to the table and affixed their signatures to the treaties and agreements which are all parts of the structure built to lift from a war-torn world the burden of excessive naval armament, promote peace in the Pacific, give a new bill of rights to China and remove from the Far East particularly the clouds of war. As each delegation fixed its signature, the great audience applauded long and loudly. The treaty was signed in this order: United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Belgium, The Netherlands, China and Portugal. At the conclusion of the ceremony of signing President Harding delivered his address formally closing the conference.

$300 An Acre Land

In a recent court case, a tract of 19 acres, adjoining Wilmore, last week, sold to T. Moore, of North Carolina, for $300 per acre. Possession to be given at once. Terms cash.

Good Sale In Clark

At the sale of Joan W. Ballard at his place on the Red River, poles in Clark county milk cows sold for from $20 to $70; one 4-year-old horse brought $100; 3 yearling calves went at $13.50 each; 5 head of 700 pound cattle brought $17 each; 3 yearling steers sold for $36 a head and 8 yearling heifers went at $30 each.

the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association

"Tenants who belong to the association, of course," he said, "should be in the same position in the future as they are this year, insofar as their relationship to the association is concerned. Nothing has been done to lessen the interest of loyal tenant members in the organization. But landlords belonging to the association cannot legally rent land to non-members upon a crop sharing basis."

"I believe it would be a good policy for landlords to refuse to rent land to tenants who are unwilling to sign the association contract, but in the event that this cannot be avoided, it will be legally necessary for them to make such contracts with their tenants as to provide for the control and sale of the tobacco remaining absolutely in the hands of the landlord."

"To avoid any possible difficulty, however, it will be much more preferable for landlords to insist upon having all their tenants join the association. In short, so far as the association is concerned, its relationship with tenant members will always be on a par to its relationship with landlord members, but in the future landlords should guard against making contracts with their tenants which in any way can be construed as being in opposition to their contract with the association, which provides that all of the tobacco they control, directly or indirectly, must move through association channels."

CARDINAL RATTI IS ELECTED POPE

Archbishop of Milan Succeeds
Benedict XV After Several Days' Balloting

(By Associated Press)
Rome, Feb. 6.—Cardinal Achille Ratti, Archbishop of Milan, was proclaimed elected Pope in succession to the late Benedict XV this morning. He has taken the name of Pius XI.

As soon as the two-thirds vote was verified the new Pope was escorted to the ante-room within the Sistine Chapel where he discarded his Cardinal robes and donned the vestments of his new office. A little later he ascended the throne where the Cardinals made the first act of adoration. The ceremony concluded, the Pontiff appeared on the balcony of St. Peter's church, where he bestowed upon the multitude his first public benediction. He then returned to the Vatican virtually to be a prisoner until his death. Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, arrived an hour after the Pope was elected.

Cardinal Achille Ratti, Archbishop of Milan, was for several years Papal Nuncio in Poland, where his discharge of important ecclesiastical functions when the Polish question became acute earned for him the esteem of Benedict XV and the gratitude of Vatican authorities. It was because of this service that he had been considered upon him June 16, 1921 when a similar honor was bestowed on Cardinal Laurienti.

The new Pope was born in Desio, Italy, March 31, 1857. For many years was librarian of Ambrosian library and archivist at Milan. Later he became librarian of the Vatican. In this position he remained until the new republic of Poland established official diplomatic relations with the Vatican at which time Ratti was appointed archbishop and was assigned to Poland as the representative of the Holy See.

His country was then torn with the estrangements from religion brought about by the Communist propaganda from Soviet Russia and Archbishop Ratti counteracted the spread of radicalism. He also won the esteem of Polish Catholics by his efforts in behalf of destitute children orphaned by the war.

Cardinal Ratti as the Archbishop of Milan presides over one of the most important archdioceses in Italy. The city being a great industrial center, one of its main requirements is that the Cardinal shall possess a thorough knowledge of political and social problems. He is physically and is reported to have liberal tendencies.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

Asbury College at Wilmore has succeeded in raising its $300,000 endowment fund.

Darryl McCarty, editor of the Jessamine Journal, who has been quite ill for a long time, has been taken to a Lexington hospital for treatment.

Biggest Raid Yet By Officers

Sheriff Deatherage and Posse
Destroy Fourteen Moonshine
Still and 4,000 Gallons of Mash

Fourteen moonshine stills, 4,000 gallons of mash, one alleged moonshiner and a number of suspects was the crop gathered in Madison and the edge of Jackson county early Monday in one of the biggest raids engineered in this section since prohibition went into effect.

A force of about 10 or 12 officers, five of them Federal deputies, and all under the leadership of Sheriff Elmer Deatherage, spread terror among the shiners from Bobtown to Bearwallow and Big Hill during the early hours. With Sheriff Deatherage were his regular deputies, Franklin Deatherage, Dick Mohr and Bob Davis. He swore in as special deputies Bob Telford, Ray Martin and a number of other young men of town. Chief of Police Watkins, of Benton, joined the party, and Sheriff Lambert, of Jackson county, with several of his men strengthened them also. There were five Federal prohibition officers in charge of Lucien A. Bannan, of this city, the others being Agent White, Beckner, Correll and Miller.

The big party divided up in two squads and made a clean sweep of a wide section of territory. A quantity of liquor was found and destroyed, but no still was found actually in operation, so far as learned. One negro suspect was taken in charge. A still was found in his barn and the federal men set fire to the whole "one-lung" and burned the barn and contents. The other stills were burned and big bonfires testified to the thoroughness with which the officers cleaned up things. They left Richmond at 4 o'clock Monday morning and got back about 5 in the afternoon, covered with mud and very tired.

Collins Needs More Men

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Feb. 6.—State Prohibition Director Sam Collins today announced an increase in the number of prohibition agents in Kentucky will be asked. The force probably will be increased from 30 to 40.

Another Big Moonshine Raid In Estill County

Irvine, Feb. 6.—Another raid was carried out Thursday by Irvine police. This time two stills were raided on the Prewitt and Goff lease on Miller's Creek, and in addition to the stills, destroyed twelve fermenters. The raiders arrested the following who it is claimed, were found operating the still: Olive O'Arnold, C. T. Wiseman, Leonard Arnold, E. L. Thacker. The raid was headed by Chief of Police Russ Sizemore and he had with him Jess Hamilton, Green Covey, George Brinegar and James Engate.

Entertained For Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Squire T. Henderson entertained with a birthday dinner at their home at Edenton Friday, Jan. 13, in honor of Mr. Henderson's 69th birthday. Those who enjoyed the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chandler and two daughters, Ethel and Sadie, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wylie and little son, Stanley; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sebastian; Mrs. Noel Cobb and little son, Noel Dean; Mrs. J. W. Cobb and daughter, Callie; Mrs. Sarilda Vincent; Misses Georgia Warren, Stella Howard, Stella Stone, Messrs. James Collins, James Vincent, Lelan Cobb, Jake Teaster, who made a very impressive speech wishing the old man many more happy birthdays. They all went away feeling good that all had met and enjoyed themselves together and with everything to eat.—Contributed.

LEGION TO VOTE ON STATE BONDS TONIGHT

Official Ballot Received Here and Form Is Criticized By Some Legionnaires

Members of Jesse M. Dykes Post of the American Legion will vote their sentiment as to the legislature of Kentucky giving them a bonus at a called meeting tonight. Commander Charles George has issued the call. He has received official ballots from state headquarters. Mr. George says that many of the members of the local post are inclined to censure the form in which the ballots are made out, as they think that the fourth question to be voted on in the ballot is drawn in an ambiguous way that may cause some confusion when the members prepare to vote. The official ballot, which the boys will vote on, reads as follows:

"1. Do you favor asking the General Assembly of Kentucky to provide for a cash bonus to able bodied ex-service persons?"

.....YES.....NO.....

"2. Do you favor Federal legislation providing a bonus?"

.....YES.....NO.....

"3. Do you favor restricting benefits of legislation to disabled men?"

.....YES.....NO.....

"4. Do you favor the following resolution?"

"Resolved, That the American Legion, standing for principles and the just right of ex-service person, realizing that the National Government is about to recognize its obligations to them by passing the American Legion Adjusted Compensation Bill, and that our state is in dire stress and suffering from excessive burdens and taxation, and not only owes no duty to compensate ex-service persons, but is unable to pay anything to ex-service persons at a grant, and for these reasons it refuses to ask the General Assembly of Kentucky to pass a law providing a cash gift to able bodied ex-service person."

.....YES.....NO.....

"One vote is admitted by order of the State Executive Committee. LEMUEL O'NEAL, Department Commander. "Instructions. Use pencil in marking ballot. "Each member of the Legion in good standing with his current dues paid up shall be entitled to one vote. "Each ballot shall be signed on the back by the member and his signature shall be witnessed by the Post Adjutant and cast by the member in the presence of the Post Adjutant and transmitted by mail to the Department Adjutant. "The vote will be counted and verified by the Post Adjutant to the Department Adjutant."

21 Year Sentence In Clay

Manchester, Feb. 6.—The jury trying Steve Martin charged with murder of his brother-in-law, Wood Benge, returned a verdict of guilty for voluntary manslaughter, fixing his term of imprisonment at 21 years. The defense will ask a new hearing. Court adjourned after being in session three weeks. It is reported the grand jury returned 100 indictments. The killing of Benge was the beginning of the Philpot-Martin-Benge feud.

IMPORTANT MEASURES ARE UP THIS WEEK

Legislature About Half Through Is Shooting Bills In Both Houses

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 6.—With the total number of bills in line for passage or defeat in both houses of the Kentucky General Assembly striking dangerously near the century mark that body will swing in to the home stretch this afternoon at 1 o'clock in an effort to get as many measures as possible out of the way before the regime of the Rules Committee begins. In the House there will be 50 bills lined up in the orders of the day and in the Senate ten less.

The assembly got down to real work during the last week and as a result 24 measures passed the House and 29 received enough votes to get by in the Senate. One new measure was sent to the governor for his signature. The bill was officially handed to 28 bills in the House and to five in the Senate, while the word went around that several prominently mentioned measures would be defeated when the time came. Two bills have been passed by both houses and the governor signed both.

The only big measure that came up for passage in the House was the trading stamp act offered by Representative C. D. McCaw, of Paducah. The measure passed a comfortable majority in the lower body and supporters believe that the bill will pass the Senate.

Among the Senate's most important bills was that passed Friday extending to county and police courts and magistrates concurrent jurisdiction with circuit courts in the trial of violations of the prohibition laws. Under the provisions of this measure persons violating any of the provisions of the 1920 acts regarding prohibition can be tried in the lower courts and fined up to $200. Several new features were added to the bill giving lower court officers authority to issue search warrants, seize property and otherwise making more stringent the present acts.

The only measure that came up for passage and went down in defeat in the House was that which sought to repeal the present anti-pave law. The defeat was decisive.

Both Houses paid but little heed to committee reports in many instances and demanded by instant into the calendar despite unfavorable reports. This action brought forth protest from (Continued on page 4)

CAR SLIDES OVER HILL EMBANKMENT

And Lands Right Side Up But
Mrs. Munday Witt's Face Is Badly Cut

Mr. and Mrs. Munday Witt, of Trenton, N. J., had a mighty close call from death and almost a miraculous escape when their car went over an embankment about 50 feet just this side of the Harpin Curve on the river hill on the Lexington pike Saturday night.

Luckily the machine did not overturn. It slid down the embankment and landed right side up with care on the lower part of the pike, below the curve. About the only damage done was to Mrs. Witt, who was severely cut about the eyes and face when her glasses struck the windshield breaking, and marring her face severely. A gentleman in his car about that time and rushed Mrs. Witt to the home of Dr. J. H. Rutledge, near Boston, where her injuries were dressed. She was later brought to town by her uncle, Mr. R. B. Terrill. Mrs. Witt is a daughter of Mr. Brad, Marquis of the county. She and her husband have been here for some weeks while he is completing some contract work on his deceased brother. Mr. and Mrs. Witt had been with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Hendricks in Lexington. Their return trip was prevented until just as they turned the Harpin Curve ascending the river hill. They met a man with a horse which became frightened and lunged and plunged. Mr. Witt was driving near the edge of the embankment, and kept his position, thinking the horse would go by on the other side. However, the animal plunged right into the machine. Mr. Witt turned quickly to avoid the car, and as he did so, the car went over the embankment. It seems remarkable that it did not overturn but it maintained itself upright and landed "on all four feet" on the lower end, apparently with little damage except the breaking of the windshield and the injury to Mrs. Witt.

BIG DOUBLE BILL AT OPERA HOUSE TUESDAY

Through a no understanding of the booking agent of the Phoenix Amusement Company, the double bill which was advertised for Monday night, will not be given until Tuesday night. This will mean a double feature program as it will give in connection with the much talked of picture, "Passion," which plays the local theatres for a two day engagement.

The yardville act, "The Talk of the Town," comprises sixteen people, and after their engagement with the Paris theatre Monday night and the Richmond theatre Tuesday night, are booked for a three days' show at Lexington. The prices for this double bill Tuesday will be 35c and 55c, and through special arrangements by Miss Ward, the regular price of admission will be charged for the "Passion" picture Wednesday.

Mrs. Van Meter Appointed On State Committee

Mrs. Solomon Van Meter, of Lexington, has the distinction of being the first woman in Kentucky to serve on the State Democratic Executive Committee, having recently been appointed woman committeewoman for the state at large by Judge Charles A. Hardin, of the State Democratic Committee. Mrs. Van Meter before her marriage was Miss Pauline Helm Hardin, a daughter of former Chief Justice M. R. Hardin, of the Court of Appeals. At the time of her marriage she held the office of State Librarian, to which she was three times elected, the last two without opposition.

A Good Bill

The Daily Register is heartily in sympathy with the movement to secure passage of a bill which would give the state police authority to remove petty offenders from the streets. NO OPPOSITION TO GILBERT, SAYS TIMES

Friends here of Congressman Ralph Gilbert will be pleased to know that indications are that he will have no opposition for re-nomination at the hands of the Democratic party this year. At least, Billy Kauterschner says so in the Louisville Times, and Kauterschner usually knows what he's talking about when it comes to political prognosticating. He said Saturday:

Judge Ralph Gilbert, Congressman of the Eighth District, who was elected to his home in Shelbyville to look after some matters in the Green Court, spent a day in Louisville. Mr. Gilbert is very hopeful of the political future as it affects the Democratic party nationally and he looks for a sweeping reversal of Harding administration at the polls in the coming congressional elections. Mr. Gilbert is assured of re-nomination without opposition.

COLLEGE HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and two children, Mary Douglas and Charles Jr., came Thursday for a visit with Mrs. A. W. Williams.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD

May Be Made Strong and Robust By Susto—Nutritive Tonic Tablets

Every mother who has child thin, delicate and ailing, will be interested in the report of the Nutritional Expert of one of America's greatest Medical Colleges, in regard to SUSTO, a Nutritive Tonic Food Tablet, which has been tested and approved at that college. After a test extending over many months, here is what he says:

"In every instance where under-nourished infants and children were given SUSTO, important body-weight increases were recorded. A notable case is that of a boy of eleven who had been underweight for three or four years in spite of the best medical and dietetic treatment. The feeding of SUSTO produced a gain of six pounds."

"SUSTO, as improved by us, is an excellent nutritive tonic and growth-promoting therapeutic agent which should prove useful to all who wish to put on weight, to under-nourished children and adults, and to men, women and children in general, who show signs of a run-down system."

It will pay every mother who has a delicate, weak, ailing, and underweight child to try SUSTO also any person who is underweight, run down, nervous or anemic.

The reason SUSTO is producing such marvelous results is because it contains in concentrated form the essential strengthening, life-giving elements of rice, yeast, eggs and milk, together with beef protein, nuclei and iron, which are lacking in our daily food.

The reliability of SUSTO is guaranteed by the highest authority.

WESTERN BASKETEER'S LEG IS BROKEN

Victory of Eastern Over Bowling Green Rival Marred By Unfortunate Accident

Eastern's basketball team re-venge last fall's football defeat at the hands of Western State Normal when it defeated Western's basketball team at the Madison gym Saturday night by score of 26 to 15. The floor of the gym has recently been oiled and slipped the game up a great deal as the athletes found it hard to secure a firm footing. This slipping caused a collision between Captain Jones of Western and Mainors, which resulted in Jones' leg being broken above the ankle. He is in a local hospital and is reported to be doing nicely.

Eastern took the lead on the start with a field goal. Western tied the score soon after, but then the locals started on their march toward victory and were never headed. They showed that they were class over Western as the game progressed. The game was not featured with as many fast plays as usual, because of the slick floor. In spite of this, the locals showed some high-class basketball in spots. Byrd started the game with a field goal. A soon as Eastern became accustomed to the floor, he rolled up a score that was never in danger of being overcome. Eastern was minus the services of Earl Combs, star guard and captain. He sustained several injuries in the early part of the season and has been forced to abandon basketball, so as to be in tip-top shape by the 12th of March. This is when he goes south with the Louisville Colonels to try for a position on their baseball team. The Eastern fans will miss his sterling playing but wish him the best of luck on his southern trip.

Byrd again led Eastern in the scoring with ten points. He probably would have added more to this number but was removed from the game toward the last to give a sub a chance. He made two nice long shots for baskets and passed well. Clark ran him a close second with nine points, covered the floor well and seemed to be recovering his former style of playing which has been lacking in the last two games. Stephenson played great ball at center for Eastern. He scored seven points for Coach Hembree's men besides playing a fine defensive game. Mainors and Hall at guard held the enemy in check throughout the time they were in the game. Mainors followed up many shots and held his own to very few points. Hall came in and his share of the good work as well as Crutcher who substituted for him toward the last. Coach Hembree also deserves a great deal of credit for the victory over Eastern's action marks. He has been putting forth all his efforts to bring victory to Eastern in this battle. As a former student of Eastern he makes a splendid record for the institution in athletics. He has proved nothing but a success since coming here, having developed many winning teams since he took the reins of Eastern from Coach McCoy. He will also try hard to round the local team condition for the Transylvania battle Saturday. On the Eastern team which was beaten by Transylvania in the last meeting between these two schools at basketball, Hembree played a big hand. He is, therefore, out for revenge and will not fall for short of his aim.

The line-ups:
Eastern—Byrd, (10) rf; Clark, (9) lf; Stephenson (7) c; Hall, rg; Mainors, lg.
Western—Owens, (7) rf; White, (4) lf; Ward, c; Jones, rg; Ridley, lg.
Substitutes for Eastern—Kum-

FELT LIKE HER NERVES WOULD SNAP IN TWO

Ashland Woman Was On Verge of a Complete Breakdown When She Began Taking Tan-lac.

Eight Years of Dyspepsia Overcome and She Has Never Felt Better In Her Life, Declares Mrs. Craig.

"I like to talk about Tan-lac, it has helped me and I know it will help others," said Mrs. Fentah Craig, Apt. 3, 111 Pittman street, Ashland, Ky.

"I had a bad time at stomach trouble for eight years and had almost given up hope of getting relief. My liver was sluggish, too, and I had awful nervous attacks and felt that my nerves would snap in two. I was on the verge of a breakdown when I began taking Tan-lac, but in a short time I had me feeling like a different person."

"I can never remember when I was in better health than I am right now, nor could I ask to feel any better than I do now."

Tan-lac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son, and leading druggists.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

SWIFT'S PRODUCE REVIEW

Colder weather throughout the western producing sections has caused some decrease in the deliveries of cream, resulting in higher prices for butterfat.

Lighter production and keen demand have caused an advance in the price of fresh eggs, but as the season advances and larger receipts are available, more moderate prices are likely to prevail. Poultry receipts, while somewhat lighter, are ample for current use and prices show but little change.

"Did you vote for a change?" we asked him.

"Ah wasn't at de meetin'" replied Andy, "but ah voted by peroxide."

IMPORTANT MEASURES

members in both branches, and a demand in the Senate to either withhold the reports or do away with committees. The road bond issue and the soldier bonus were read into the calendar in the House after considerable discussion.

The first political tilt of the session occurred when the road bond bill came up for passage in the Senate. The measure, introduced for Louisville only, would remove the log cabins, roosters and other emblems from the ballot at municipal elections. Republicans lined up solidly against the bill, declaring that it was aimed at the negro voters, and that bondholders would be disfranchised. The democratic members voted solidly for the measure and it went through 19 to 15. The bill is expected to go through the House sometime this week, and be ready for the governor's signature or veto before next week.

The Senate passed the bill of Senator H. P. Myron eliminating grade crossings from public highways with but little publicity. Another bill by the same Senator, authorizing a reorganization of the graded school districts also passed.

One of the bills passed in the House provides persons dressed in bathing suits from going about the streets in villages which have no public protection. The vote was 14 to 20.

Among the bills which are so far for consideration in the House during the present week are:

H. C. O'Donnovan's bill to take a bond issue of $100,000 for a soldier bonus.

S. R. Powell's bill allowing judges $8 a day.

The bill of J. B. Wheeler amending the dog law.

W. J. Wheeler's measure providing that any fees collected on any county remain in the county to be used in road building.

The bill of Lee Clark providing a school year tax on miles or years of age.

B. A. O'Donnovan's bill regarding already in bond checks at all terminals.

W. T. Markon's bill for regulation of coming of illegitimate child and childless voters.

Pauline Payson's bill to make cooperative pensions $15 and include those compelled to take of allegiance.

L. C. Myers' bill to submit $50,000 bond issue to the vote of the people.

H. J. Meyers' bill to forbid use of deplugh saving time.

G. L. Drury's bill to allow courts to grant declaratory judgments.

Mary Elliott Flannery's bill to provide for extension of boundaries of fourth class city school districts.

E. L. Frazier's bill to create Kentucky Disabled ex-Servicemen's Board.

E. A. Gullion's bill to provide for boards of education to levy school tax in fourth class cities.

H. J. Meyers' bill to provide for getting county judge.

James Park's bill to empower university and normal schools to condemn land.

W. M. Bolling's bill to provide for election of county superintendents.

C. A. Chandler's bill to prohibit the teaching of evolution in any school or college or institution of learning maintained in whole or in part by the state.

C. D. Minor's bill to provide for the election of sub-district trustees in county rural districts and defining their duties.

The following are important bills which will likely be up for consideration in the Senate:

Griffin Kelley's bill to provide for the election of county school superintendents by a vote of the people.

S. L. Marshall's bill to provide for an additional commissioner of the Court of Appeals.

J. D. Whitaker's bill to regulate the practice of medicine, osteopathy and chiropractic.

H. M. Brock's bill to define qualifications of members of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, wardens of the state reformatories, superintendents of state hospitals and employees.

F. M. White's bill to re-enact statute relating to certificates to pupils completing the elementary course of study of county school districts.

B. H. Harris' bill to amend the school district law in fourth class cities with reference to annexed territory.

W. A. Perry's bill to define and regulate business of dry cleaning and dyeing by placing such concerns under the jurisdiction of the State Fire Marshal.

Newton Bright's bill to create State Board of Education composed of eight laymen, and the first meeting of public interest. The board is to be appointed by the governor.

J. D. Whitaker's bill to amend the statute relating to certificates to pupils completing the elementary course of study of county school districts.

Newton Bright's bill to amend the statute relating to certificates to pupils completing the elementary course of study of county school districts.

Frank L. Thayer's bill to amend the statute relating to certificates to pupils completing the elementary course of study of county school districts.
